WALSH STIRRED BY GRAFT CHARGES OF TWO MAGISTRATES

Saloons in Twenty-first Assembly District "Shaken Down" for $5 a Week Each, Declares Walsh from Bench.

POLICE GRAFT AND PROTECT TWO MAGISTRATES DECLARE.

"I am informed that Frank O'Connell, President of the Liquor Dealers' Association in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street precinct, collects $5 a week from nearly every saloon-keeper in the precinct. This money, the saloon-keepers believe, goes to Capt. Herlihy, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station.

"My information is that this money was not collected for two years before Capt. Herlihy came into the precinct.

I believe that Thomas Creamer, a saloon-keeper in this district, is the subject of political persecution by the police because he is one of my district captains."—Magistrate Walsh in Harlem Police Court.

"New York is the widest open town on the face of God's green earth. Gambling-houses, pool-rooms and every other form of vice and crime are given free reign.

"The police let gamblers operate their crooked games without interference—perhaps with assistance."—Magistrate Crane in Westchester Police Court.

The leaderless Police Department came in for denunciation from two court benches to-day. Magistrate Walsh, in Harlem Court, charged that Frank O'Connell, one of the district presidents of the Liquor Dealers' Association, collects $5 weekly from nearly every saloon-keeper in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street precinct, and that the understanding is that Herlihy gets the money.

He charged further that the police in the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street precinct are protecting gambling-houses and pool-rooms and are subjecting certain liquor dealers to persecution for political purposes.

Magistrate Walsh was formerly counsel for the Liquor Dealers' Protective Association and ought to know what he is talking about. He is also a candidate for the Tammany leadership of the new Twenty-first Assembly District, with the backing of Charles F. Murphy. His opponent is Joseph Savage, who has the McClellan-O'Brien backing. Politics in Harlem is at the boiling point and Magistrate Walsh's charges were made to-day under the influence of violent anger.

Crane Also Makes Charges.

At the time Magistrate Walsh was denouncing conditions in Harlem, Magistrate Crane, in Westchester Police Court, was talking about the same lines. He accused the police of being in league with gamblers and lawbreakers. Magistrate Crane's wrath was aroused by some humble prisoners who had been gathered in for selling peanuts in Bronx Park on Sunday.

Acting Police Commissioner Waldo was taken by surprise when told of the charges made by Magistrate Walsh. Mr. Waldo said that he knew nothing about police conditions in the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street precinct. While he was expressing his amazement at the Walsh charges a copy of a Harlem newspaper was shown to him. This paper accuses certain Harlem police officials of protecting certain pool-rooms.

"This certainly calls for investigation," said Mr. Waldo. "Magistrate Walsh wrote me the other day, making charges against the Police Department, and I am to meet him and talk them over with him some day this week. I shall summon Inspector Walsh, who has the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Precinct in his charge, and order him to investigate the serious charges made by Magistrate Walsh."

Herlihy on Vacation.

Inspector Herlihy is really in charge of the upper west side, but Inspector Walsh is doing his work while he is enjoying a vacation. Capt. Herlihy is also on a vacation, and the precinct is in charge of Acting Capt. McNally. There was considerable surprise in police circles in the early summer when Commissioner Hinchman transferred Herlihy from a suburban precinct to the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street command, from which he had previously been removed.

The fireworks in Harlem Police Court started when Dominick Higgins, a bartender, of No. 4 East One Hundred and Thirty-third street, was arrested and charged with violation of the excise law. Higgins is a bartender for Thomas Creamer, a liquor dealer in Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Thirty-third street. Creamer is an election district captain, and one of the hardest workers for the success of Magistrate Walsh as district leader.

Policemen Gilbert and Rappold, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, accused Higgins of selling them whiskey and beer yesterday evening and of having the back door of his place open to gamblers.

BRYAN REFUSES PRIVATE CAR AND PAYS HIS OWN WAY.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 27.—William Jennings Bryan has declined the proffer of President Nelson's private car on his trip from New York to this city. In his letter he says:

"I do not think it would be wise to accept favors from the railroad. Let me pay my fare and ride as I usually do."

"What," asked the chief Nebraska rooster of a sun-kissed Florida booster to-day, "what is home without a Bryan?"

"Suh," replied the Florida man, after a moment of thought, "I give it up. What is home without a Bryan. Brudder Bones?"

"We know blamed well what a White House is without a Bryan," put in an impudent bystander, "and I'm pretty well satisfied with the incumbent. If anybody should happen to inquire."

But he was merely a Republican, and the faithful one from Florida and the hopeful one from Nebraska treated his impudence with the contempt which it deserved.

Parts of Broadway are beginning to look like the day before a national convention. The Home Folks from Ills Own State got in last night and told the reporters that they were greatly impressed with the skyscrapers of New York, of which they had read so much. They were surprised, though, to find antiquated horse cars on our crooked lines. Now, in Lincoln, a city, sir, which is growing faster than any city in America, as shown by the census, which gave:

This morning came the Florida crowd, chaperoned, as was fit and proper, by a man who is an even cousin of William Jennings Bryan. The Florida delegates, replying to the anxious inquiries of the reporters, said they were indeed impressed with the size and height

HEAD JUST MISSED BY PIECE OF STEEL

R. A. Drury Had a Narrow Escape from a Serious Injury.

You are likely to get almost anything from the subway management nowadays. R. A. Drury, passing under the elevated extension of the subway tracks at One Hundred and Seventy-seventh street and Southern Boulevard to-day got an irregular but interesting hunk of steel weighing nine and a half pounds. It dropped from the tracks, fifty feet above his head, knocked off his hat, grazed his back and made quite a dent in the trolley track.

The present dropped to Mr. Drury was part of a motor cog-wheel and fell from under one of the subway motor cars. Mr. Drury was somewhat agitated at his narrow escape. He wrapped the missile in a newspaper and took it to the subway offices with the intention of showing it to General Manager Healey. Mr. Healey was not there, but his assistant was.

"My goodness," said the assistant, "it's lucky you wasn't killed. There is a pan under the motors to keep pieces of them from dropping into the street through the roofs of trolley cars and people. Mr. Drury suggested that the pan didn't appear to have been of much use in his case."

"Probably," admitted Mr. Healey's assistant, "this piece of machinery dropped through the pan."

(Special to The Evening World.)
AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The Highlanders added another victory to their list to-day by defeating the St. Louis Browns in a timely batting rally in the eighth inning by a score of two to one.

Drives by Kleinow and Hoffman, while men were on bases, turned what looked like a shutout into a victory.

Elberfeld and Griffith were put out of the game for disputing a decision of Umpire Sheridan. The smallest crowd of the season witnessed the game.

First Inning.

Niles stroled to first. Jones sacrificed. A passed ball advanced Niles to third. Elberfeld fanned. Niles got a pass to first. Hemphill drove a fly into Yeager's hands and Stone was doubled up. NO RUNS.

Conroy flied to Jones. Hoffman singled and stole second. As he tried to reach third on O'Connell's wild throw down, he was nailed by Koehler. Elberfeld flied to O'Brien. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Elberfeld pulled in Wallace's high one. O'Brien bounced out to Chase. Delehanty got Koehler's fly near the fence. NO RUNS.

Chase drove one to the left fence for three bases. Yeager fanned. Delehanty failed to get to second. Elberfeld flied to Hemphill. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

O'Connell's fly dropped safely between Elberfeld and Delehanty. Powell bunted to Chase, and on the latter's poor throw both runners were safe. Delehanty flied to O'Brien. O'Connell at third. Jones hit to Elberfeld, forcing Niles at second. Powell reaching third. NO RUNS.

Kleinow batted a fly to Koehler. Chesbro flied to O'Brien. O'Brien's throw was nailed by Wallace. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Hemphill sent a fly to Hoffman. Wallace laid out to Hoffman. O'Brien grounded to Yeager, who threw him out. NO RUNS.

Elberfeld singled. Hoffman fanned.

MORE OF CZAR'S CHIEFS SLAIN; JAILS FILLED

Terrorists Slay Acting
Military Governor of Warsaw To-Day.

EMPEROR FIGHTS BACK.

Government Dragnet Out in an Effort to Catch the Plotters.

WARSAW, Russian Poland, Aug. 27.—Gen. Voniarski, Acting Military Governor-General of Warsaw, was shot and killed at 2 o'clock this afternoon while driving in a cab. The assassin escaped. The victim was the commander of the Polish Army Corps, stationed at this place.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 27.—G. P. M.—A report reached St. Petersburg late this afternoon that Col. Rimann, of the Semenovskiy Guard Regiment, had been assassinated at Luga, where he stopped while on his way to Warsaw to take up a position on the staff of Gen. Skillon, Governor-General of Warsaw.

An unsuccessful attempt upon the life of Baron Stahl, who greatly resembles Gen. Treppoff, is reported to have been made in the park at Peterhof last night, but the story is denied.

A number of arrests, however, were made in the park during the evening, and to-day the Government, desperate over the fast recurring assassinations, got out its dragnet and landed hundreds of prisoners in jail in the hope of capturing the Terrorist plotters.

Gen. Voniarski, who was slain in Warsaw to-day, was driving in a carriage and pair from the commandant's office to his residence. As the General's driver alighted at a place where the street was torn up for repaving, a young man fired four shots at Voniarski through the top of the carriage, which was up on account of rain. One of the bullets entered the General's chest and the driver of the carriage was up on his feet and drove at full speed to the hospital, where the General died almost instantly.

Voniarski had only recently been appointed Acting Military Governor of this city.

Defied the Terrorists.

Gen. Miu, who was assassinated yesterday on the station platform, was followed by a young woman, was a Colonel in command of the First Battalion of the Semenovskiy Regiment during the suppression of the revolt at Moscow and became noted for his heroism.

The Second Battalion of that regiment, under the command of Col. Rimann, who was murdered to-day, conducted extensive measures along the railroad from Moscow to Kazan. For their conduct in these operations Miu and Rimann were condemned to death by the Revolutionists, and several attempts have been made to take the latter's life.

Undeterred by the action of the Terrorists, Rimann recently accepted an appointment on the staff of Gen. Skillon, Governor-General of Warsaw, and left St. Petersburg three days ago to assist in the suppression of anarchy in Poland.

The open campaign against the government which the Social Revolutionists has inaugurated has produced such a feeling of resentment at Peterhof that the spectre of a dictatorship has been revived.

The government, it is claimed, can only rely on force to fight the terrorists, as the public press remains coldly indifferent. Indeed, while expressing formal words of condemnation, the hidden satisfaction at the fact that the object of the campaign is to strike terror into the heart of the government, is hardly concealed. Only the Novoye Vremya and the official Russia denounce the Terrorists as enemies of society.

The conclusions of the Liberal press are summed up in the charge made by the Reich that the Government only is guilty and responsible for what has happened.

Hundreds Arrested.

The police have made hundreds of arrests since Saturday in an attempt to get their hands upon the organizer and participants in what is evidently a powerful, far-reaching conspiracy, but thus far they have been unable to secure the threads necessary to enable them to unravel the skein.

Assassination and not revolt is the new plan of the revolutionists. Every Government representative who attempts repressive measures will be marked for death. The murder of Gen. Voniarski and that of Gen. Kuznetsov and a rumored effort to reach the Car in Peterhof Palace, indicate that civil war is a new phase broken out.

The Central Committee of the Social Revolutionaries confirmed the fact to-day by issuing a proclamation which declares that unless the Government immediately changes its policy and takes the side of the people, it will be carried out to the utmost extreme, and Government representatives will be killed by the hundreds.

DRAKE'S HORSES GO WROG TWICE AND BOOKS WIN PLUNGE

Broadcloth and Grapple, Both Odds-On Favorites, Are Beaten Out by Two 15 to 1 Chances in Saratoga Mud.

SARATOGA RESULTS.

FIRST RACE—Brooklyn, Aug. 27. (Special to The Evening World.)
John A. Drake out a couple of lengths here this afternoon and the juice was very sour to the talent. He started Broadcloth in the opening dash and Grapple in the Amsterdam Selling Stakes. Both were odds-on favorites and both were beaten by desperate outsiders. The usual Drake-Gale plunge again found its way into the book-makers' strong boxes.

Grapple showed speed to the stretch, but nothing like his real form and Right Royal, a rejuvenated cripple, easily beat him home.

Broadcloth, the other good thing, went wrong too, for Bertha E., a 15 to 1 chance, nailed him on the far turn and outgaming him all through the stretch, won by a head. Phalanx ran a good race.

The Steeplechase was an easy win for Paul Jones. Hay waited until a mile had been run and then gradually closing strongly took the lead on the turn and easily beat Belligerent, a 40 to 1 chance.

J. C. Core won the third race very easily after his backers had a few moments' uneasiness when they're off from him to the stretch very easily. In the run home, however, J. C. Core came away very easily.

Animus by a Head.

In the fifth Mittie Russell T. and Plausible raced head and head to the stretch, where Animus joined them. In a hot drive Animus won by a head from Russell T., who beat Plausible a head.

Bivouac Takes Sixth.

Young went to the front in the sixth, with Sailor Boy, and they raced in close order to the far turn, when Bivouac went in and won easily by two lengths. Animus ran a good race, but Sonoma Belle a length.

Close Together in Seventh.

In the last race of the day York and Play made the running to the stretch, followed by Airs, Fish Hawk and Vanquero. In the stretch Mortiboy raced to the front and won easily by a head. Fish Hawk won by a nose. Vanquero was third two lengths away. The winner was up to $2.00 and bought in by the owner.

Beaten by St. Louis by Score of 5 to 1 in Early Half.
